

INDIANA SCHOOL-BASED RNS

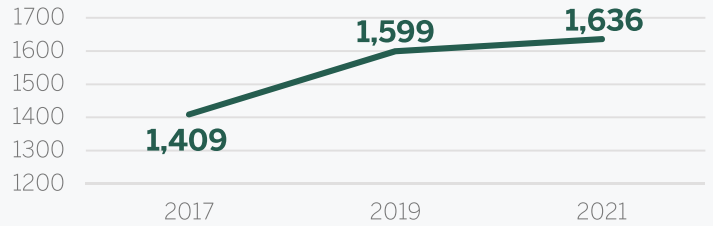

The Takeaway: Indiana's school-based RN workforce has slightly less gender and racial diversity compared to the total Indiana RN Workforce. School-based RNs experience similar uncertainty about their future employment plans in nursing, or plan to decrease hours in the field. A greater percentage of school-based RN hold a Bachelors in Nursing than the overall workforce.

1,636

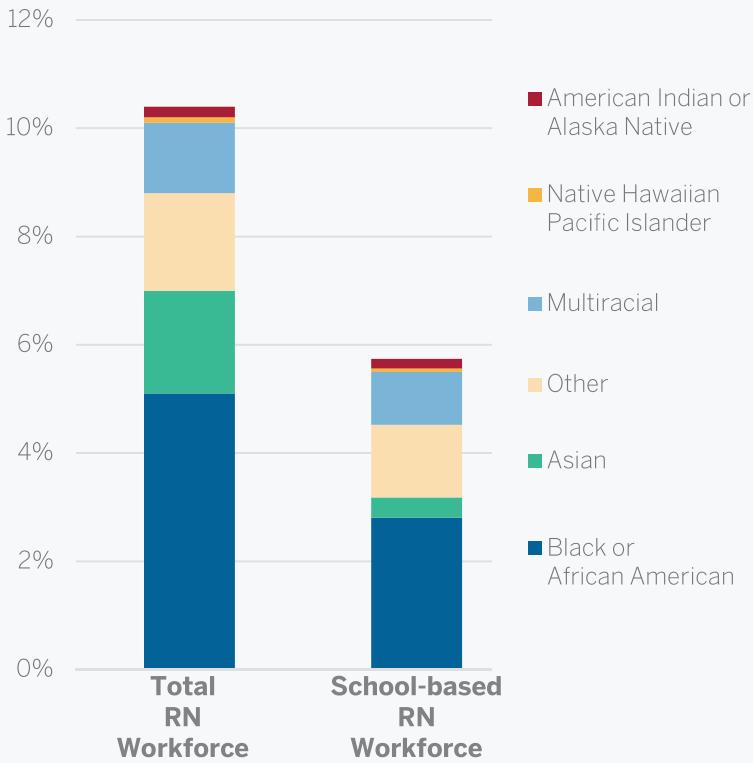

School-Based RNs in 2021

1,636 RNs reported their primary work setting as "school-based health" in 2021, referred to on this page as "School-based RNs"

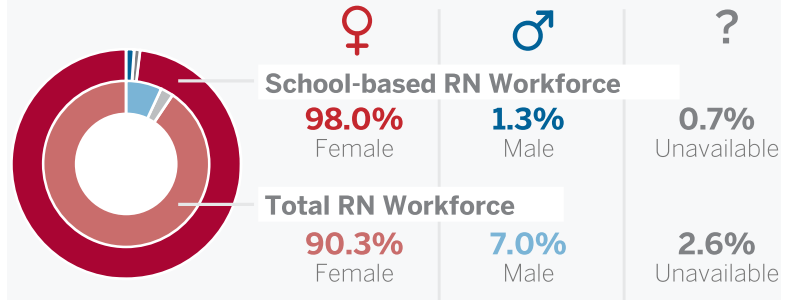

Supply of School-based RNs

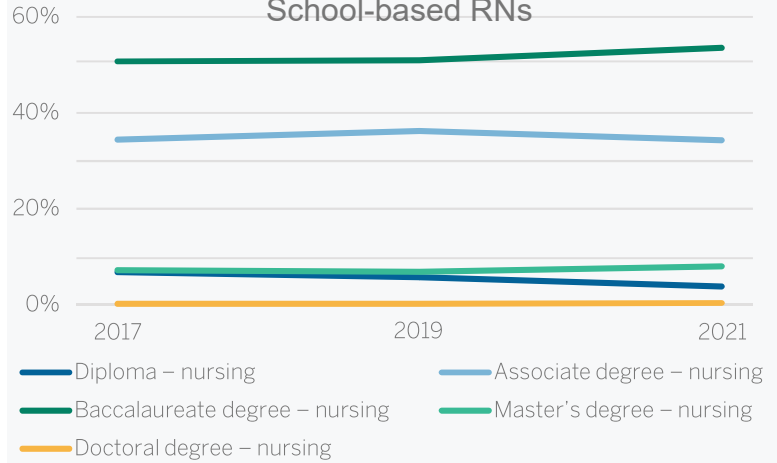

Racial Diversity of School-based RNs

Gender of School-based RNs

Trends in Highest Nursing Degree of School-based RNs

School-based RNs Employment Plans in the Next Two Years

