

Indiana Farm Security Photographs

Writing a Newspaper Article

Students can select a photograph and imagine they are a newspaper reporter. Students can write an article that would accompany the photograph if it were to be published in a newspaper. Being a reporter they will need to answer the basic questions that every reporter must address: what, when, where and how. They will also need to think of a headline and caption for the photograph.