

MAC midwest archives conference

Des Moines 2024

Sowing Seeds of Change

Session #101

I'm Rooting for You:
Cultivating Relationships with Graduate Student Workers

Danielle Hall

Kansas State University

- University Records Manager, Kansas State University
- 2 years experience supervising and working with students in archives and museums.
- Worked in an unpaid but credit earning internship during undergrad.
- Education: Library Science MS with Archival concentration from Emporia State University
- dnhall@ksu.edu
- University Archives and Records Management \(k-state.edu\)

Brandon Pieczko

Indiana University

- Digital and Special Collections Librarian at Ruth Lilly Medical Library, Indiana University School of Medicine
- Associate Faculty member, Department of Library and Information Science, Indiana University Indianapolis
- Worked in both paid (graduate assistant, intern) and unpaid (volunteer, practicum student) archival positions as a graduate student
- 10 years of experience working with students and interns in archives and special collections
- Currently supervise paid, credit-earning graduate student interns from IU Indianapolis MLIS program
- bpieczko@iu.edu
- <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-0054-7260>

Benna Vaughan

Baylor University

- Special Collections and Manuscripts Archivist, Associate Librarian for The Texas Collection
- 24 years experience supervising and working with students in the archive and classroom
- Worked in an unpaid internship during graduate school
- Currently supervises graduate students, undergraduate students, and graduate interns
- Benna_Vaughan@baylor.edu

Sarah Lebovitz

Wayne State University

- Archivist for SEIU (Service Employees International Union) at Walter P. Reuther Library, Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs
- 5 years experience supervising and working with students in archives
- Worked in a paid position as a graduate student
- Information School on campus: Wayne State University School of Information Sciences
- sarah.lebovitz@wayne.edu

Nicole Connell

University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

- MLIS Student at University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign (I graduate next week!)
- Graduate Assistant at the Rare Book and Manuscript Library at UIUC
- Have also taken paid and unpaid internships prior and during my MLIS experience.
- nicole23@illinois.edu (school), connelln@gmail.com (personal)

Program and Institutional Opportunities:

Program Offerings and Key Priorities for Supervisors and Supervisees

Three parallel gold diagonal lines are positioned in the bottom right corner of the slide, extending from the white area into the dark blue background.

Program Success Factors:

Insights and Pitfalls

Funding Success

Strategies and Advocacy for Internship Programs

Exploring Student Projects:

Utilizing Projects to create a Rewarding Internship Experience

Beyond Institutional Boundaries:

Supporting Students Outside Institutional Frameworks

Thank You!

Danielle Hall :	dnhall@ksu.edu
Brandon Pieczko:	bpieczko@iu.edu
Benna Vaughan:	Benna_Vaughan@baylor.edu
Sarah Lebovitz:	sarah.lebovitz@wayne.edu
Nicole Connell:	nicole23@illinois.edu (school), connelln@gmail.com (personal)

Questions?